Art Philosophers Presentation:

30 minute Group Presentation on selected class readings

The Presentation includes

- An explication of the main claims and perspectives in the reading materials
- Examples highlighting concepts
- Visuals useful in clarifying concepts and ideas
- Definitions of terms
- Discussion led by the presenting group around a series of questions for the class to consider and answer

Areas of evaluations:

Content

- Accuracy of ideas presented
- Focus on relevant main ideas and their relationship with each other

"I first of all drew the snail from nature, holding it. I became aware of an unrolling, I found an image in my mind purified of the shell, then I took the scissors"

Matisse: The Snail

- Structure and coherence
- Organization that helps clarify content
- Content adapted for oral delivery
- Accessible to non-specialists

Interaction

- explain the material in an interactive and friendly way
- engage class with questions, handouts, exercises, quizzes, or other activity
- ensure period of discussion and Q&A

Team Work

- integration of style and them
- clarity of boundaries between segments
- coherence between parts
  evidence of advance preparation

Visual Aids

- distraction free
- relevant to content
- complementing not replacing content
- limited in number
- free of words or concepts the speaker does not discuss or does not understand
- coherent between speakers

Delivery

- Voice Volume audible
- Eye contact with audience not notes
- Speed of normal speaking or slower

- Register casual enough to make content understandable
- Body posture that shows confidence and openness
- Demeanor - friendly and accessible

Preparation
- Team has rehearsed
- Group introduces each member and each section
- Group has timed presentation beforehand
- Foreseeable technical issues have been resolved in advance
- Transition between team members is smooth and well planned