RACE, COLOR, RELIGION, SEX, NATIONAL ORIGIN

Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, protects applicants and employees from discrimination in hiring, promotion, discharge, pay, fringe benefits, job training, classification, referral, and other aspects of employment, on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy), or national origin. Religious discrimination includes failing to reasonably accommodate an employee's religious practices where the accommodation does not impose undue hardship.

DISABILITY

Title I and Title V of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended, protect qualified individuals from discrimination on the basis of disability in hiring, promotion, discharge, pay, fringe benefits, job training, classification, referral, and other aspects of employment. Disability discrimination includes not making reasonable accommodation to the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified individual with a disability who is an applicant or employee, barring undue hardship.

- Works well for candidates who have experience in the same field and who shows steady career growth

Less appropriate for:

- College students who have not much work experience
- People who have changed jobs frequently or who have gaps in their employment record

Functional:

Groups skills and accomplishments under special categories or headings such as :

- Relevant Course Work
- Research projects
- Internships
- Extracurricular activities

Project a professional image:

- Substance
- Visual impact
- Proofreading

- Play with layout & design
- Review samples with caution

- Current students
- Graduates with 1-2 years of work experience
- Working professionals with 2+ work experience
